

market of ASSOCIATION

the street

alternating of levels and areas allows for streets to be created. these streets create thresholds of privacy that can be accessed as you move through the individual 'stalls'. from the public street, to the semi public to the semi private and finally the private

