

UNIVERSITY OF THE WITWATERSRAND,
JOHANNESBURG

NATIONAL HEALTH
LABORATORY SERVICE

POSTGRADUATE DIPLOMA IN TROPICAL MEDICINE & HYGIENE

The PG diploma is highly recommended for medical doctors with an interest in tropical medicine and infectious diseases.

The Faculty of Health Sciences has an outstanding reputation with world-renowned specialists in their respective fields. Wits is recognised both locally and internationally for the exemplary training of its postgraduate students.

Learning and teaching objectives have been aligned to on-line learning and include interactive activities, webinars and audio/video presentations.

Requirements for acceptance:
Medical degree and
HPCSA (or equivalent) registration

Overall Course Coordinator:
Prof AG Duse, adriano.duse@wits.ac.za

Administrator:
BT Maroun bronwyn.maroun@wits.ac.za

Course commences
20 March 2023
with examinations in October

Complete the online application:
<https://www.wits.ac.za/applications>

Application information:
Postgraduate Office of the Faculty Registrar
Health Sciences
+27 (0) 11 717 2329
precillia.sithole@wits.ac.za

Faculty Registrar: sandra.benn@wits.ac.za

The Wits PG DTM&H qualification is the longest-standing course of its type in Africa. The on-line course offers students up-to-date insights into tropical medicine and infectious diseases.