

Wits History Workshop Seminar Schedule

March- May 2023

Time: 13h00-14h15*

Date	Speaker and Affiliation	Title
1 March	Daria Zelenova Senior Research Fellow, Institute of African Studies, Russian Academy of Sciences and ODID, Oxford/Sussex	Military training of MK and ZAPU soldiers in the USSR in the 1960s: unpacking cultural exchanges of internationalism
8 March	Noor Nieftagodien (University of the Witwatersrand), Tshepo Moloi (University of Johannesburg), and Laurence Stewart (University of the Witwatersrand)	Book Launch: Labour Struggles in Southern Africa, 1919-1949 New Perspectives on the Industrial and Commercial Workers' Union (ICU)
15 March	Béatrice Touchelay Professor of Contemporary History, University of Lille	What do statistics mean in a colonial and postcolonial situation (Anglophone and Francophone Africa, 19th-20th centuries)?
22 March	Zachary Levenson (UNC-Greensboro & Univ. of Johannesburg) and Marcel Paret (Univ. of Utah & Univ. of Johannesburg)	The South African tradition of racial capitalism
29 March	Liz Carmichael Emeritus Research Fellow, St John's College, Oxford	The unknown story of the transition: the National Peace Accord and the Peace Committees, a social compact that worked, 1991 to 1994
5 April	Justin Pearce Senior Lecturer, Department of History, Stellenbosch University	Nationalism and internationalism in Angola's Cold War army
19 April	Andrew Flinn (University College London) and Hannah Ishmael (Archivist, Black Cultural Archives, London)	Digging where we stand: the drive and motivations to establish independent radical archives
26 April	Marc Epprecht Professor, Global Development Studies, Queen's University, Canada & University of the Witwatersrand	The Berg, the Basotho and politics in the writing of Robert Keable, 1912-1924: a decolonization diary
3 May	Simon Bright ZimMedia & PhD Researcher, Univ. of the West of England	The untold story of transnational southern African cinema, 1977-2003
10 May	Nikolaos Papadogiannis Lecturer in European History, University of Stirling	Transnational AIDS Activism in Western Europe, 1980s-1990s
17 May	Stefan Norgaard PhD Candidate in Urban Planning, Columbia University, Graduate School of Architecture and Planning	The Graft of Racial Modernism: Pastiche, Hegemony, and Urban Planning in the Bophuthatswana Bantustan
24 May	Lloyd Hazvineyi PhD Candidate, Department of History, University of the Witwatersrand	Ndebele forced removals and temporalities of migration in colonial Zimbabwe
31 May	Cynthia Kros (University of the Witwatersrand), Reece Auguiste (University of Colorado, Boulder) & Pervaiz Khan (University of the Witwatersrand)	Book Launch: Reframing Africa? Reflections on Modernity and the Moving Image

* Depending on speaker time zone, time may vary.