PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT
USER MANUAL
UNIVERSITY OF THE WITWATERSRAND, JOHANNESBURG

This Manual is published in terms of Section 14 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000) (“the Act”). The Act gives effect to the provisions of Section 32 of the Constitution, and provides for the right of access to information held by another person or entity, where such information is required by someone to exercise or protect his/her rights.

OVERVIEW

The University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg (hereinafter, “Wits University” or “the University”) is a higher education institution whose main objectives are the provision of higher education and academic research and whose main offices are situated on No. 1 Jan Smuts Avenue, Braamfontein, Johannesburg, South Africa.

This Manual serves to inform members of the public, as well as data subjects of the University, of the categories of information held by the University, and which may, subject to the grounds of refusal listed in the Act, be disclosed after evaluation of an access application being made in terms of the Act.

The University has developed internal measures and adequate systems to process requests for information access subject to the relevant requirements as set out in the Manual, the Act, the Protection of Personal Information Act of 2013, and other relevant legislation.

All requests will be evaluated against the provisions of the Act (in conjunction with any other legislation, including the Protection of Personal Information Act of 2013). The Act allows the Information Officer to refuse access on grounds stipulated in the Act or in terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act of 2013. Some of the grounds include, but is not limited to:

- professional privilege;
- that it is necessary to protect the commercial information or the confidential information of a third party;
- that the record constitutes privileged information for the purposes of legal proceedings;
- that it is necessary to protect the commercial information of the University;
- that it is necessary to protect the safety of individuals or property;
- that granting access would result in the unreasonable disclosure of personal information about a third party.

The University is obliged under the Act to respond to a request for access to information held by it within 30 days of receipt of the request. The Act provides for other processes that can be followed by a Requester should his/her request under the Act, or any other legislation, be denied.

HOW THE ACT WORKS AND INFORMATION PUBLISHED BY THE SAHRC

The SAHRC has published a guide containing information that may reasonably be required by any person who wishes to exercise any right under the Act. This guide is available on the SAHRC website or at the following address:
