The normal rental period for residence students then commences on 31 January in preparation for the start of the academic year on Tuesday, 03 February. Certain category of students e.g. Health Sciences, whose academic curriculum will require their presence on campus outside of the periods mentioned above must consult the Residence Administration Officers of their residences early in the year to confirm their personal term dates and additional accommodation requirements, and their additional rentals. Failure to do so will not absolve a student from the obligation to pay additional rentals, and to pay for the related additional meals and levies.

Accommodation for deferred/ supplementary exams, electives or support programmes/blocks undertaken by students is not covered by the annual rental.

Students in catering residences are required to vacate their residences during the mid-year vacation, but they are not required to do so during the April and September study breaks. A student in a catering residence may remain in his/her residence only until the day after he/she has completed his/her examinations. This applies to the mid-year and the end-of-year examination periods.

Please Note:

- Any student who remains in a catering residence without written permission for more than one night after his/her last examination in June/July or in November/December may face disciplinary and/or financial consequences and may be excluded from the Residence Programme thereafter.

B.2 Self-Catering Accommodation

The accommodation period for The Wits Junction is 17 January to 30 November. The accommodation period in other self-catering residences is 17 January until the day following the student's last end-of-year examination.

Certain category of students e.g. Health Sciences and Postgraduates (including most Honours, PHD and Masters candidates) etc., whose academic curriculum will require their presence on campus outside of the period mentioned above must consult the Residence Administration Officers of their residences early in the year to confirm their personal term dates and additional accommodation requirements, and their additional rentals with the last accommodation day allowed being the 18th December. Failure to do so will not absolve a student from the obligation to pay additional rentals.

Accommodation for deferred/ supplementary exams, electives or support programmes/blocks undertaken by students is not covered by the annual rental.

New first-year undergraduates in self-catered residences receive free accommodation during the period 17 January to 30 January. The normal rental period for residence students then commences on 31 January in preparation for the start of the academic year on Tuesday, 03 February.

Please note:

- Any student who remains in a self-catering residence (except Campus Lodge, International House West Campus Village and Wits Junction) without permission for more than one night after his/her last November/ December examination may face disciplinary and/or financial consequences and may be excluded from residences thereafter.

B.3 Vacation Accommodation

Residence students needing accommodation for academic or academic-related purposes outside of normal University terms will be charged rentals for this period and includes accommodation required for deferred/supplementary exams and support programmes/blocks. ### C.1 Deposit to secure a residence place - NEW APPLICANTS ONLY

A deposit of R990 is payable upon acceptance of a residence offer. This amount will be credited to the student's general fee account and is refunded if the student is not accepted to the University. All refunds are processed through the Fees Office.

C.2 Payment of residence rentals, meals and levies

A payment of R5 000 being the initial instalment is due before admission to any residence. The balance is due by 30 June. Students being funded by a sponsor/bursary e.g. NSFAS, are liable for the full fees if the sponsor withdraws/declines the funding or fund only a portion of the fees. Special arrangements may be made directly with the Fees Office to pay off this portion in instalments.

exceptions to the initial payment requirement in C.2 above are –

- (i) a student whose residence rentals, meals and levies will be met in full by bursaries, scholarships, NSFAS financial aid packages or by recognised sponsors, and who submits acceptable written evidence of such support by uploading such information on the FASO section of the student self-service portal, to the Residence Administration Officer of the student's assigned residence and to the Fees Office;
- (ii) Students not able to pay the first instalment due to experiencing financial difficulty or other exceptional circumstances will be allowed to waive the initial instalment.
- (iii) international students, all of whom are required to pay 75% of their annual residence rentals and meals before admission to a residence, and the balance of the fees is payable by 30 June.

If a student fails to pay 100% of his/her residence charges by 30 June (or, in the case of a student who has entered into an instalment agreement with the Fees Office, by the agreed date for payment of the final instalment), his/ her examination results may be withheld, and the student will not be admitted to a University residence during the following academic year.

If a student who has entered into an instalment payment agreement with the Fees Office has fallen behind in his/ her payments by the end of the first term, he/she will have forfeited his/her rights to further accommodation during the remainder of the year.

C.4 Withdrawal from University accommodation

If a student wishes to withdraw from University accommodation during the academic year, a minimum of one month's written notice is required which is to be submitted online via the self-service portal and will be liable for the duration of their stay and the rentals for the notice period. However, if a student giving notice vacates his/her accommodation within 3 days of taking occupancy and within the first week of the term, rentals for the notice period will not be charged. If, however, cancellation occurs after 31 July, the student shall be liable for the entire rental and associated charges for the year, and shall not be entitled to any credit adjustment, except for students who are excluded or de- registered by the Faculty. Masters and PHD students arriving after the 01 April have until 01 October to cancel their accommodation to avoid being liable for the full residence rentals.

- When cancelling accommodation in a catered residence, the student must also notify the Dining Hall Liaison Officer of the related dining hall in writing that the remaining booked meals for the year must be cancelled. Failure to do so will render the student liable for the cost of all meals originally booked for the remainder of the year.
- Students cancelling their accommodation during the Wits Orientation Programme will be liable for rentals for the duration of their stay.
