

REGISTRATION STEPS AT WITS IN 2026

STEP 1

- If you are made a firm offer, you will receive an SMS offer and a firm offer letter via email from the University.
- Please follow the instructions in the letter.

STEP 2

- Access your self-service portal - <https://self-service.wits.ac.za/>
- Accept an offer, complete the student contract, and register online before the deadline stipulated in the firm offer letter.
  - SA citizens are required to pay the first fee payment before registration. If you cannot make this payment or are awaiting NSFAS feedback, complete the First Fee Payment option after accepting an offer. (You will be required to pay tuition fees in full for the year by 30 June 2026.)
  - International applicants are required to pay at least 75% of the year's tuition fees before being able to register and will require clearance from the International Students Office and the Fees Office. (You will be required to pay tuition fees in full for the year by 30 June 2026.)
  - Click the Fee Estimator tile to generate an annual fees estimate for an academic programme that you are either active in or have applied for.
  - Residence applicants must have accepted the residence offer

STEP 3

- Access the www.wits.ac.za/mywits/student-email/ to activate your Wits Student email and other services e.g. Gateway to Success, Ulwazi, etc.

Exciting News! Revised University Entrance Scholarship (UNES) Awards for 2026

We are delighted to announce the revised UNES awards for 2026. The UNES amount will be clearly stipulated in your firm offer letter and automatically credited to your student fee account – you do not need to apply separately. UNES amounts are calculated using 6 subjects excluding Life Orientation (LO).

New Entrance Scholarship Award Structure

APS 51+ = 100% 1st Year Tuition | APS 48–50 = R45 000
APS 45–47 = R25 000 | APS 43–44 = R20 000

IMPORTANT NOTES

Your firm offer will be forfeited should you not accept and register within the specified timeline

The University may consider reinstating an expired firm offer under exceptional circumstances (subject to place availability)
